

Induction Program

Date: 15 October, 2022
Venue:- Recreation Hall of the college
Organizers:- IQAC

Objective of the Event:

01. To introduce newly admitted students about various facilities in the college.
02. To make them aware various departments and their benefits.

Brief Report:

Induction program is organized in the college for newly admitted students of semester-I at Under Graduate Level. The Induction Program is organized on 15th October, 2022 in the Recreation Hall. All the heads of the departments gave all relevant information about their department and their benefits to the students. Dr. M J. Meshram presided over the program and in his speech motivates the students to take active participate in all the activities and appealed them to show hidden potential.

Event Outcomes: All the students of Semester-I tried to understand the benefits of various activities and departments. Some students asked their queries and get cleared by the concerned head.

