Brief Report:

The Constitution Day / Samvidhana Divasa also known as "National Law Day", is celebrated in India on 26 November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. On 26 November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted to the Constitution of India, and it came into effect on 26 January 1950. In the college we have celebrated the Constitution Day, on this occasion all the students, teachers, and non-teaching staff assembled and by offering flowers and garlanding to the photo of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, the architect of Indian Constitution. We all took oath as Indian citizen by reading aloud the Preamble of Indian Constitution.

Event Outcomes:

By reading aloud the preamble and taking oath we all made aware about the rights given to us by Indian Constitution. We all are known the importance of the sacred book of the Indian Constitution.
