

Lecture Series on Panjabrao Deshmukh

Date of the Event:	19 October, 2023
Venue of the Event:	Conference Hall Shivaji Mahavidyalaya Gadchiroli
Organizing Department:	Y. D. V. Arts, Comm. & Sci. College Tivasa Amravati, Gondwana University Gadchiroli and Shivaji Mahavidyalaya Gadchiroli

Objectives of the Event:

01. To know social contribution of Panjabrao Deshmukh.
02. To know the leader as a son of farmers.

Brief Report:

In the academic year 2023-24 on 19 October a lecture series was organized in the college for the students and other stakeholders on the occasion of 125th birth anniversary of Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh. He is also known as Babusaheb Deshmukh was born on 27 December 1898. Born and raised in Amravati, Maharashtra, he obtained his early education in Papal and Amravati. Later, he went on to study in Fergusson College, Poona, Edinburgh University, Oxford University and Lincoln's Inn, London. He was farmer's right activist, and set up C.P. Berar Farmers' Association. He participated in Satyagraha to protest against untouchability in Ambala Temple Amravati. He was the Union Minister of Agriculture in the first Cabinet post-independence. He continued his advocacy work around agriculture and farmers. The resource persons were from all field of society from education, from social service and bureaucracy including from our educational society and Gondwana University Gadchiroli. All resource persons throw light on the life and works of Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh.

Event Outcomes:

The students and teachers also understood the works and dedication towards the nation of the great leader and devoted son of India Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh.

